	SUBJECT: 24-HOUR SUPERVISION AVAILABILITY	PAGE: 1 of 1
REFERENCES: None		DATE ADOPTED: 7/1/06 DATE REVIEWED:

STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice require the Community Supervision Agency provide supervision services availability 24 hours per day.

DISCUSSION: At a minimum, 24-hour supervision must include who to contact (name or office) and how (telephone numbers) for questions or assistance during the regular work day; and names and telephone numbers to contact after hours, on weekends, and during holidays for regular and emergency situations. Community Supervision Agencies must ensure that staff, juveniles and families, law enforcement, placements, and other juvenile justice partners are made aware of the Agency's policy, procedure, and practice. Supervision agencies may choose to utilize Juvenile Intake and Assessment Services (JIAS), detention centers or law enforcement for implementing this standard.

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies and their employees/contractors and juveniles under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies or their employees/contractors, or supervised juveniles, or an independent duty owed by the Juvenile Justice Authority to community supervision agencies, or their employees/contractors, supervised juveniles or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
